

General Education Requirements 2015 (Optional Transition to the New GE Program)

Effective Date: 1/2015

Name:
Student ID #:		Catalog Year:
Home Country:
Academic Advisor:

The BYU-Hawaii General Education program helps students develop both breadth of knowledge and the thinking skills and character of a servant-leader, the ability to inquire, analyze, and communicate and to act with integrity, stewardship, and service, to prepare them to serve in a world community as productive, responsible citizens and as faithful members of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-

Optional: (these classes may help to prepare you for later classes, but are not part of the GE program)
Success Skills Electives	STDEV 101 (Intro to University Life), CRDEV 102 (Career Exploration)
Fundamental Math Elective	MATH 97, 100, 101, MATH 110 (note: 110 not part of GE but may be required by major)
Fundamental Language Elective	Elementary Conversation & Grammar I – the equivalent of 2-3 years of High School Language etc. Contact World Language Coordinator for more info.	101
INQUIRY & ENGAGEMENT Must take all of the following:
Language Requirement (ASL, Chinese, EIL, French, Hawaiian, Japanese, Maori, Spanish, Samoan, Tongan, etc.)	Pass language course at 201 level or above, Or: Credit by examination thru the 201 level, Or: Test out of 201 level without credit, Or: Certify English Competence (non-native speakers) by: (a) Completing EIL program or (b) Testing out of EIL Program	102
Math Requirement (choose 1) New options in bold	CIS 205, EXS 339, MATH 106/107/111/112/113/119/221 , POSC 200&204, PSYC 205, SOCW 486/487, BIOL 340	201 or higher
Reading/Writing/Speaking	ENGL 101
Physical Education	Choose any one 100-level EXS class or EXS 201R
Local Communities: Principles of Civic & Moral Engagement	GE 100 (or HIST 201)
Critical Inquiry and Analysis	GE 110 (or ENGL 201 or POSC 190)
Scientific Reasoning	GE 120 (or any science course)
BREADTH OF KNOWLEDGE Choose one class from each category: (Same categories as old GE program, but with different names and also new options in italics)
Science & Technology	ASTR 104, BIOL 100/112, CHEM 100/105, GEOL 105, PHSC 100, PHYS 100, PHYS 121, CIS 100/200, CIS 101, IT 240
Humanities & Culture	ART 196/220, ENGL 201/251 , HUM 101/290, HWST 101, ICS 261/262/264/266, MUSC 101/102/103/384/385/386, PAIS 105, THEA 115
Social Science	ANTH 105, COMM 110, ECON 200, EDU 200, GEOG 101, HIST 120/121/201, LING 210 , POSC 101/110/170, PSYC 111, SOC 111, SOCW 160
ADVANCED GE Must take all of the following:
World Communities	HIST 202 (GE 300 starting Fall 2015)
Advanced Writing	ENGL 314 or 315 or 316 or Approved Senior Seminar
RELIGION Must take the following 7 courses or electives (Fewer are required for transfer students – see catalog) (Note: A maximum of one religion class is allowed per semester)
Book of Mormon I	REL 121 or REL 275
Book of Mormon II	REL 122 or REL 275
Doctrine and Covenants	REL 324 or REL 325 or REL 225
New Testament	REL 211 or REL 212 or REL 250
Religion Elective
Religion Elective
Religion Elective
All students are required to complete General Education program requirements, alongside their Major degree requirements and other electives to reach a minimum of 120 credits to graduate with a Bachelor's Degree. day Saints.